

Stadium Regulations for the 2006 FIFA World Cup™

Preamble

These stadium regulations (“Regulations”) constitute regulations for use and apply to the (...) stadium in (...) and its enclosed confines.

§ 1 Scope

These Regulations shall apply in the enclosed stadium confines as well as to all of the stadium’s buildings and installations, including entrances and exits, starting from the outermost security cordon, and adjoining car parks provided for visitors attending events inside the stadium confines (together, the “Site”) for the period for which the Site is leased to the Deutsche Fussball-Bund e.V. (2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany) before, during and after the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.

§ 2 General Conditions

- (1) The Site shall be used primarily to stage the football matches of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.
- (2) The general public shall have no claim to use the Site.
- (3) Any other agreements governing the use of the Site, which may need to be concluded on a case-by-case basis, shall be based on German civil law.
- (4) These Regulations have been prepared in German accompanied by one or more translations. In the event of any discrepancies between any part of the German text and any translation, the German version shall prevail.

§ 3 Right of admission

- (1) Only persons who are in possession of a valid ticket or other type of pass which is used to grant the holder admission to the Site (by way of example only, an accreditation) ("Entry Pass") or who are able to prove their entitlement to enter by some other means shall be admitted to the Site. Upon entry and while inside the Site, visitors shall present their Entry Pass and admissible proof of identity for inspection, when requested to do so by stewards, security personnel or police officers.
- (2) Only persons in possession of a special permit shall be entitled to drive and park vehicles inside the Site and all the restrictions of such a permit shall be respected. The provisions of the German Road Traffic Regulations (Strassenverkehrsordnung - "StVO") shall also apply.
- (3) Visitors shall sit in the seat indicated on their ticket for the relevant match or event. The conditions of Entry Passes shall be at all times respected and complied with. Only dedicated walkways may be used when moving around the Site.
- (4) In addition to these Regulations, any regulations drawn up by the stadium management in conjunction with the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany shall also apply inside the Site.

§ 4 Entry checks

- (1) Upon entry to the Site, visitors shall be obliged to present their Entry Passes to security personnel, stewards and police officers, without prompting, and hand them over for inspection if necessary. Any person failing to do so shall be refused entry.

The validity and use of tickets is governed by the Ticketing General Terms and Conditions for tickets to the 2006 FIFA World Cup Germany™.

- (2) The security personnel and stewards appointed by the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany shall also be entitled to ascertain, using technical equipment if necessary, whether a visitor poses a security risk due to the consumption of alcohol or drugs or has in their possession weapons or dangerous or flammable objects. With the visitor's consent, the security personnel and stewards may search his or her clothing or other belongings. This search may be conducted using technical equipment.

- (3) Any person who is unable to prove his or her right of admission, poses a security risk, or refuses to be searched shall be refused entry to the Site and be turned away.

Any person subject to a national or international stadium banning order shall be refused entry. Persons who are refused entry shall not be entitled to a refund.

§ 5 Conduct inside the Site

- (1) All persons entering the Site shall conduct themselves in such a way as not to offend, endanger the safety, or unnecessarily hinder or harass others.
- (2) All persons entering the Site shall follow the instructions issued by the police, fire brigade, security personnel, stewards, emergency services and stadium announcer.

Any person wilfully or negligently failing to obey such instructions may be ejected from the Site by security personnel, stewards or police officers.

- (3) All persons entering the Site must occupy only the seat indicated on their ticket and shall access it only via the designated entrance. For security reasons and to avert danger, visitors shall move to seats other than those allocated, whether in the same or another section of the stadium, if instructed to do so by security personnel, stewards or police officers.
- (4) All access stairways and emergency exits must be kept clear. Regardless of these Regulations, further mandatory instructions may be issued, if necessary, in order to prevent or eliminate any risk to life, health or personal belongings. Any orders issued in this context by the police, security personnel or stewards shall be adhered to.
- (5) All persons entering the Site are requested not to drop litter, packaging or empty containers, but to dispose of such items in the appropriate litter bins inside the Site, in accordance with the instructions for separating different types of waste.

- (6) All persons entering the Site give their irrevocable consent to the use, free of charge, of his or her voice, image and/or likeness in live or recorded video display, broadcast or in other transmission or recording, photographs, or any other media now or hereafter existing, taken or recorded at the Site in connection with the 2006 FIFA World Cup. Section 23 (2) of the German Art Copyright Act (Kunsturhebergesetz) shall remain unaffected.

§ 6 Prohibited items

- (1) Unless otherwise authorised by the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany and/or FIFA, all people entering the Site are prohibited from bringing into the Site, and/or carrying on their person any of the following items:
- a) Racist, xenophobic, extreme right-wing, national socialist or political propaganda;
 - b) Weapons of any kind;
 - c) Objects that may be used as missiles or as weapons to cut, strike or stab others;
 - d) Aerosols, caustic or flammable substances, dyestuffs, or receptacles containing flammable or harmful substances, with the exception of standard pocket cigarette lighters;
 - e) Bottles, cups, mugs, cans or any other objects made of glass or brittle, shattering or very hard material;
 - f) Bulky items such as ladders, stools, (folding) chairs, crates, large bags, rucksacks or suitcases;
 - g) Fireworks, flares, smoke powder, smoke canisters or other pyrotechnic objects;
 - h) Poles for flags or banners measuring more than 1 metre in length or 3 centimetres in diameter or double-pole banners (only flags and banners made of inflammable material shall be permitted);

- i) Large quantities of paper or paper rolls;
 - j) Mechanically operated sound-emitting devices, such as megaphones or gas-powered horns;
 - k) Alcoholic beverages of any kind;
 - l) Animals;
 - m) Laser pointers;
 - n) Cameras or any video or audio recording equipment (unless prior consent has been issued by the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany);
 - o) Any equipment or devices capable of being used to transmit, or in any other manner disseminate over the internet or any other media, including mobile devices, any sound, image, description, or result of any event taking place within the Site; and
 - p) Any promotional, commercial, political or religious items of whatever nature, including but not limited to banners, signs, symbols and leaflets.
- (2) Furthermore, unless otherwise authorised by the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany and/or FIFA, people entering the Site are not allowed to:
- a) Enter the field of play or its surroundings;
 - b) Express or disseminate political propaganda or racist, xenophobic or extreme right-wing slogans or emblems, or carry out actions of a similar nature;
 - c) Climb up, on or over buildings or installations not intended for public use, especially facades, fences, walls, barriers, lighting installations, camera platforms, trees, poles of any kind and roofs;
 - d) Enter areas (such as VIP, media and operational areas) that are closed to the public, or which are otherwise not permitted by the terms of the Entry Pass .
 - e) Throw objects or fluids of any kind, especially when directed towards other spectators or the field of play and its surroundings;

- f) Light fires or set off fireworks, flares, smoke powder, smoke canisters or other pyrotechnic objects;
 - g) Offer for sale or sell goods or tickets, distribute printed material or make collections;
 - h) Write, paint or affix posters or stickers to building installations, fixtures or walkways;
 - i) Urinate or defecate anywhere other than in the toilets, or pollute the Site in any other way, in particular by dropping litter, packaging, empty containers etc.
 - j) Obstruct or interfere with zones open to traffic, walkways, roadways, entrances to and exits from spectator areas, or emergency access routes;
 - k) Stand on seats in the spectator areas;
 - l) Record (except for private purposes), transmit, or in any other manner disseminate over the internet or any other media, including mobile devices, any sound, image, description, or result of any event taking place within the Site, in whole or in part, or assist any other person(s) conducting such activities; and
 - m) Commercially exploit any photographs or images taken within the Site.
- (3) Any unauthorised access to the field of play (section 6 (2a)) shall be punishable as follows:
- a) The OC 2006 FIFA World Cup shall initiate a criminal complaint regarding the unlawful entering of the site pursuant to section 123 of the Penal Code (Strafgesetzbuch).
 - b) The spectator will be barred from the current match and expelled from the stadium.
 - c) The OC 2006 FIFA World Cup will ban the spectator from accessing any of the 12 World Cup stadiums for the duration of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™.

Tickets already purchased for other matches of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™ shall expire and will be invalidated electronically.

On the occasion of issuing a stadium ban, it lies in the sole responsibility of Deutscher Fussball-Bund e.V. to decide on whether or not to extend the stadium ban nationwide.

- d) The spectator shall pay a lump processing fee in the amount of EUR 1.000 for costs incurred by the OC 2006 FIFA World Cup. The right to enforce any further damage shall remain reserved.

§ 7 Liability

Spectators enter the Site at their own risk.

In the event of the occurrence of an incident which causes damage or loss involving injury causing death, bodily injury or permanent damage to health, the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany shall only be liable if any of its authorized representatives or agents caused such damage or loss through their wilful intent.

In respect of all other incidents causing other damage or loss (but excluding incidents involving a fundamental breach of contract by the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany), the 2006 FIFA World Cup Organising Committee Germany shall only be liable for damage and/or loss if such damage and/or loss has been caused by the wilful misconduct or gross negligence of the LOC's authorized representatives or agents.

With regard to loss or damage arising from non-fundamental breaches of contract by simple negligence, the liability is limited to the damage which is reasonably foreseeable and typical for contracts of such nature.

Accidents or damages must be reported immediately.

§ 8 Violations

- (1) Minor offences shall be punishable in accordance with local police by-laws.
- (2) The rights of the owner or rightful occupier of the premises are not affected hereby.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 6 (3), persons whose behaviour affects or endangers the safety or public order at the events can be banned from any further matches of the 2006 FIFA World Cup™. Where appropriate this stadium ban will be extended nationwide.

§ 9 Effective date of Stadium Regulations

These Regulations shall take effect as soon as the OC 2006 FIFA World Cup has taken over the stadium.

Frankfurt, November 2005

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "H. Schmidt".

Horst R. Schmidt

1st Vice President
OC 2006 FIFA World Cup™

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Dr. Zwanziger".

Dr. Theo Zwanziger

Vice President
OC 2006 FIFA World Cup™